

Dance Road Map

Perform-Create-Appreciate
The study of dance and drama at Flegg develops the understanding of the academic and cultural significance of the performing arts, improving the application of skills within multiple styles and applied to practitioners. Developing aspiring and creative performers who can appreciate the professional performing arts industry.

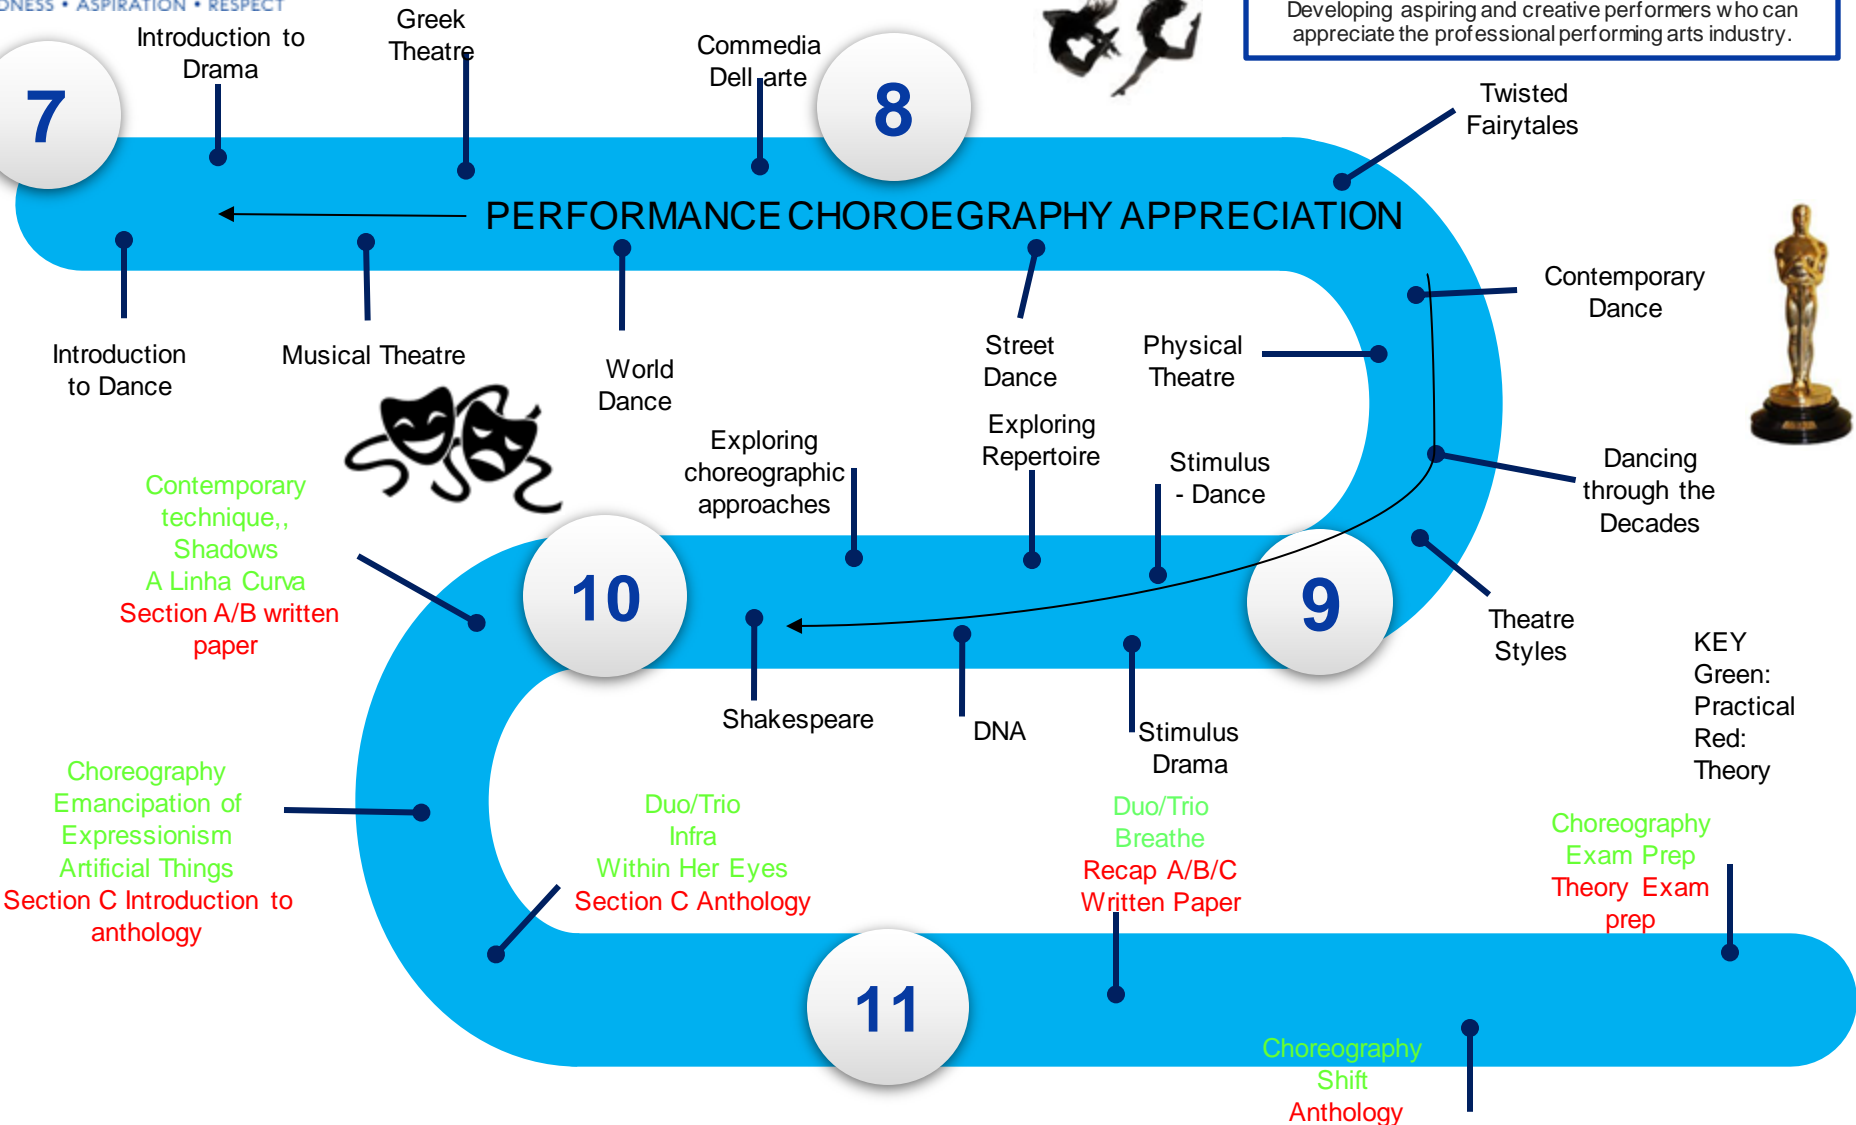

7

8

9

10

11

The dance curriculum is designed to allow students opportunity to develop their performance, choreography and appreciation skills. Allowing students to experience a wide range of dance styles whilst developing their knowledge and understanding of the four dance fundamentals: action, dynamics, space and relationships.